| 41. If any member or his legal representative, as the case may be, fails to pay any call or instalment or any money due in respect of any shares either by way of interest or otherwise on or before the day appointed for the payment of the same or any extension thereof, during such time as the call, instalment, interest or other money remains unpaid, the company shall serve a notice on such member or his legal representative as the case may be requiring him to pay the same together with any interest at such rate as may be decided by the Board that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment. | Failure to pay call or instalment and serving of notice |
| 42. The Notice shall name a day (not being less than fourteen days (14) from the date of the notice) and a place or places on and at which call or instalment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment on or before the time and at the place specified, the shares in respect of which the call is made or instalment is payable shall be liable to be forfeited. | Content of Notice |
| 43. If any member or his legal representative fails to comply with any notice as above, any shares in respect of which, such notice has been given may, at any time thereafter but before all calls, instalments, interests, expenses or other moneys, due in respect thereof, are paid, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends declared or any other money payable in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture. | Forfeiture of shares |
| 44. When any share shall have so forfeited, notice shall be given to the Member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture, and entry of the forfeiture with the date thereof, shall forth with be made in the Register of Members, but no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalid by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid. | Notice of forfeiture |
| 45. Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and the Board may sell, re-allot or otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as they think fit. | Forfeited shares to become property of the Company |

Power to annul forfeiture	46. The Board may at any time before any share so forfeited shall have been sold, re-allotted or otherwise disposed of, annul the forfeiture thereof upon such conditions as they may think fit.
Arrears to be paid notwithstanding forfeiture	47. Any member whose shares have been forfeited shall notwithstanding the forfeiture be liable to pay the Company all calls, instalments, interest, expenses or other moneys owing upon or in respect of such shares on the date of forfeiture together with interest thereon from the date of forfeiture until payment, at such rate as may be decided by the Board.
Effect of forfeiture	48. The forfeiture of share shall involve the extinction of all interest in and of all claims and demands against the Company in respect of the share, and all other rights incidental to the share, except only such rights as by these Articles are expressly saved.
Evidence of forfeiture	49. A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director or Secretary of the Company and that certain shares in the Company have been duly forfeited on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated and such declaration and the receipt of the Company for the consideration, if any, given for the shares on the sale or disposition thereof shall constitute a good title to such shares and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such shares be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture, sale or disposition.
Title of purchaser and allottee of forfeited Shares	50. The company may receive the consideration, if any; given for the share on any sale, re-allotment or other disposal thereof and may execute transfer of the share in favour of the person to whom the share is sold or disposed-off and the person to whom such share is sold, re-allotted or disposed-off, may be registered as the holder of the share. Any such purchaser or allottee shall not (unless by express agreement) be liable to pay any calls, amounts, instalments, interest and expenses owing to the company prior to such purchase or before such allotment.
Company's lien on shares	51. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien on all the Shares (other than fully paid up shares) registered in the name of each member (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of the sale thereof for all moneys (presently payable or payable at a fixed time) in respect of shares, and such lien shall extend to all dividends and bonuses from time to time declared in respect of such shares. Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such shares. The Board may at any time declare any shares to be wholly or in part to exempt from the provisions of this article.
Enforcing lien by sale	52. (1) For the purpose of enforcing such lien, the Board may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as they think fit, but no sale shall be made unless a sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and until notice in writing of the intention to sell the shares shall have been served on such member, his heirs, executors or administrators or his committee or other legal representatives as the case may be and default shall have been made by him or them in the payment of the sum payable as aforesaid for fourteen days after such notice. (2) The net proceeds of any such sale (after payment of the cost of such sale) shall be applied towards satisfaction of the amount in respect of which the lien exists and the residue, if any, shall be paid to the person entitled to the share at the date of the sale.
Validity of sale in exercise of lien, etc.	53. Upon any sale after forfeiture or for enforcing a lien in purported exercise of the powers hereinbefore given, the Board may appoint some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold and cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the Register of Members in respect of the shares sold and the purchaser shall not be bound to see the regularity of the proceedings or to the application of the purchase money, and after his name has been entered in the Register of Members in respect of such shares, the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person, and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only against the Company exclusively. Upon any such sale as aforesaid, the certificates in respect of the shares sold become null and void and of no effect and the Board shall be entitled issue a new certificate in lieu thereof to the purchaser.
Application of Forfeiture Provisions	54. The provisions of the Articles as to forfeiture shall apply in the case of non-payment of any sum which by the terms of the issue of a share becomes payable at a fixed time, whether on account of the amount of the share, or by way of premium, as if the same had been payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SHARES

55. The Company shall keep a register called the Register of Transfers and therein shall fairly and distinctly enter the particulars of every transfer or transmission of any shares of the Company. Register of Transfers
56. No transfer of shares or debentures of the Company shall be registered unless in accordance with the provisions of Section 56 of the Act and / or any statutory modification or re-enactment(s) thereof for the time being, a proper instrument of transfer duly stamped and executed by or on behalf of the transferor and by or on behalf of the transferee and specifying the name, address and occupation, if any, of the transferee has been delivered to the Company along with the certificates relating to the shares or debentures or if no such certificate is in existence, along with the letter of allotment of the shares or debentures provided the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such shares until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register in respect thereof. Execution of Transfer etc.
57. The instrument of transfer of any share shall be in writing and in the form as prescribed in Section 56 of the Act. Form of Transfer
58. (1) Every instrument of transfer duly executed and stamped shall be left at the office of the Company for registration accompanied by the certificate of the shares to be transferred and such other evidence as the Company may require proving the title of the transferor or his right to transfer the shares. Transfer to be left at office, evidence of title given when transfer to be retained
- (2) All instruments of transfer which shall be registered shall be retained by the Company, but any instrument of transfer which the Board may decline to register shall on demand, be returned to the person depositing the same.
59. No transfer shall be made to a minor, or person of unsound mind. No transfer to minor or unsound mind
60. (1) Subject to any law for the time in force, the Board of Directors shall have absolute and uncontrolled discretion and power to decline to register any proposed transfer or transmission of any shares without assigning any reasons whatsoever. This Article shall apply notwithstanding that the proposed transferee or the proposed holder under transmission may already be a member of the Company. Power of Board to reject application of transfer
- (2) The Registration of a transfer shall not be refused on the ground of the transferor being either alone or jointly with any other person or persons indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever except a lien on the shares.
61. If the Company refuses to register any such transfer or transmission or right, the Company shall, within one month (1) from the date on which the instrument of transfer was lodged with the Company send notice of the refusal to the transferee and the transferor or to the person giving intimation of such transmission, as the case may be. Notice to the transferee and the transferor of refusal to transfer shares
62. The Board may, after giving not less than seven days (7) previous notice by advertisement as required by Section 91 of the Act and SEBI Listing Regulations, close the Register of Members or the Register of Debenture holders for any period or periods not exceeding thirty days (30) at any one time. Closure of Register of Members or Debenture holders
63. The executors or administrators or holders of succession certificate or legal representatives of deceased member (not being one or two or more Joint holders) shall be the only persons recognised by the Company as having any title to the shares registered in the name of such member and the Company shall not be bound to recognise such executors or administrators or holders of succession certificate or the legal representatives unless they shall have first obtained Probate or Letters of Administration or Succession Certificate as the case may be from a duly constituted court in the Union of India. Title to share of deceased members

PROVIDED that in any case where the Board in its absolute discretion thinks fit, may dispense with production of Probate or Letters of Administration or Succession Certificate upon such terms as to indemnity or otherwise as the Board in its absolute discretion may think necessary and under the next article register the name of any person who claims to be absolutely entitled to the shares standing in the name of a deceased member as a member.

- Registration of persons entitled to shares otherwise than by transfer
64. Any person becoming entitled to any share in consequence of the death, lunacy or insolvency of any Member or by any lawful means other than by a transfer in accordance with these Articles, may, with the consent of the Board (which they shall be under no obligation to give) and upon producing such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under this Article or of his title as the Board may require, and upon giving such indemnity as the Board may require, either be registered as a Member in respect of such share or elect to have some person nominated by him and approved by the Directors registered as a Member in respect of such share.
- PROVIDED that if such person shall elect to have his nominee registered, he shall testify his election by executing in favour of his nominee an instrument of transfer in accordance with these Articles, and until he does so he shall not be free from any liability in respect of such shares. This Article is hereinafter referred to as “the Transmission Clause”.
- Claimant to be entitled to same advantages
65. A person becoming entitled to a share by reason of the death or insolvency of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would have been entitled if he had been the registered holder of the shares, except that he shall not, before being registered as a Member in respect of the shares, be entitled to exercise any right conferred by Membership in relation to meeting of the Company.
- PROVIDED that the Board shall, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to have himself registered or to transfer the shares, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety (90) days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the shares until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.
- Board may require evidence of transmission
66. Every transmission of share shall be verified in such manner as the Board may require and the Company may refuse to register any such transmission until the same be verified or until and unless an indemnity be given to the Company with regard to such registration which the Board in their discretion shall consider sufficient, provided nevertheless that there shall not be any obligation on the Company or the Directors to accept any indemnity.
- Transfer by Representative
67. A transfer of share in the Company of a deceased member thereof made by his legal representative, who is not himself a member, be as valid as if he had been a member at the time of execution of the instrument of transfer.
- No fee for transfer or transmission
68. (1) No fee shall be payable to the Company in respect of the transfer or transmission of any shares in the Company.
- (2) No fee shall be charged for issue of new share/debenture certificates in replacement of those which are old, decrepit, worn out or where the cages on the reverse for recording transfers have been fully utilised.
- (3) No fee shall be charged for transfer of shares/debentures or for effecting transmission or for registering any letters of probate, letters of administration and similar other documents.

ALTERATION OF SHARE CAPITAL

- Power to increase capital
69. The Company may, from time to time, in General Meeting increase its share capital by creation of new shares of such amount as it thinks expedient.
- New shares to be offered to existing members
70. Where at any time, the Company proposes to increase its subscribed capital by the issue of further shares, such shares shall be offered -
- (1) to persons who, on the date of the offer, are holders of Equity Shares of the Company in proportion, as nearly as circumstances admit, to the paid-up share capital on those shares by sending a letter of offer subject to the following conditions, namely:
- (a) the offer shall be made by notice specifying the number of shares offered and limiting a time not being less than 15 (fifteen) days and not exceeding 30 (thirty) days from the date of the offer within which the offer, if not accepted, shall be deemed to have been declined;

- (b) the offer aforesaid shall be deemed to include a right exercisable by the Person concerned to renounce the shares offered to him or any of them in favour of any other Person; and the notice referred to in clause (a) above shall contain a statement of this right;
 - (c) after the expiry of the time specified in the notice aforesaid, or on receipt of earlier intimation from the Person to whom such notice is given that he declines to accept the shares offered, the Board may dispose of them in such manner which is not dis-advantageous to the Shareholders and the Company;
- (2) to employees under a scheme of Employees' Stock Option, subject to Special Resolution passed by the Company and subject to the Rules and such other conditions, as may be prescribed under Law; or
 - (3) to any persons, if it is authorised by a Special Resolution, whether or not those Persons include the Persons referred to in clause (1) or clause (2) above, whether for cash or for a consideration other than cash, if the price of such shares is determined by the valuation report of a registered valuer subject to the Rules.
71. Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these presents, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered part of the original capital and shall be subject to the provisions of these presents. New capital same as original capital
72. Subject to confirmation by the Tribunal, the Company may, by special resolution, reduce its share capital in any way and in particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, may:
- (1) extinguish or reduce the liability on any of its shares in respect of share Capital not paid up; or
 - (2) either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability on any of its shares, cancel any paid-up share capital which is lost or unrepresented by any assets; or
 - (3) either with or without extinguishing or reducing liability which is in excess of the wants of the Company; and may, if and so far as is necessary, alter its Memorandum by reducing the amount of its share capital and of its shares accordingly.
73. The Company in General Meeting may alter the conditions of its Memorandum of Association for the following purposes: Sub-division, Consolidation and Splitting of shares.
- (1) To consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares;
 - (2) Convert all or any of its fully paid-up shares into stock and reconvert that stock into fully paid-up shares of any denomination;
 - (3) To sub - divide or Split its existing shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount than is fixed by the memorandum, subject to the provisions of section 61(1) (d) of the Act;
 - (4) To cancel any shares which at the date of passing of resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person.
74. (1) The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner as, and subject to the same regulations under which, the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit. Where shares are converted in to stock
- PROVIDED that the Board may, from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so, however, that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of the shares from which the stock arose.
- (2) The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, voting at meetings of the Company, and other matters, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose; but no such privilege or advantage (except participation in the dividends and profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in shares, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

Such of the regulations of the Company as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words "share" and "shareholder" in those regulations shall include "stock" and "stock-holder" respectively.

- (3) The Company may, by special resolution, reduce in any manner and with, and subject to, any incident authorized and consent required by law, -
- (a) its share capital;
 - (b) any capital redemption reserve account; or
 - (c) any share premium account.

- Right in respect of shares on sub-division. 75. Where any share capital is subdivided, the Company in General Meeting, subject to the provisions of Section 43, 47 and 48 of the Act, may determine that, as between the holders of the shares resulting from sub-division, one or more of such shares shall have some preference or special advantage over others as regards dividend, repayment of capital, voting or otherwise.
- Modification of Rights 76. Whenever the share capital, by reason of the issue of preference shares or otherwise is divided into different classes of shares, all or any of the provisions of section 106 and 107 of the Act, be modified, commuted, affected, abrogated or dealt with by the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three fourth of the issued shares of that class, and supported by the vote of that class and all the provisions hereinafter contained as the General Meeting shall, mutatis mutandis, apply to every such meeting.
- Buy Back 77. Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles but subject to all applicable provisions of the Act or any other law for the time being in force, the Company may purchase its own shares or other specified securities.

COPIES OF MEMORANDUM AND ARTICLES TO BE SENT TO MEMBERS

- Copies of Memorandum and Articles of Association to be sent by the Company 78. Copies of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company and other documents referred to in Section 17 of the Act shall be sent by the Company to every Member at his request within seven (7) days of the request, on payment of the sum of Rupee one for each copy.

BORROWING POWERS

- Power to borrow 79. Subject to the provisions of Sections 73, 74, 179, 180, 181 of the Act, the Board of Directors may from time to time by a resolution passed at a Meeting of the Board, accept deposits from members, either in advance of calls or otherwise and may generally raise or borrow or secure the repayment of any sum or sums of money for the purpose of the Company provided when the moneys to be borrowed together with the money already borrowed (apart from temporary loans obtained from the Company's Bankers in the ordinary course of business) exceed the aggregate the paid-up capital of the Company, its free reserves (not being reserves set apart for any specific purpose) and securities premium account. The Board of Directors shall not borrow such money without the consent of the Company in General Meeting.
- Conditions of Repayment of money's Borrowed 80. The payment of moneys borrowed as aforesaid may be secured in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as the Board of Directors may think fit, by resolution passed at a meeting of the Board (but not by circulation) and in particular, by the issue of bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the company either unsecured or secured by mortgage, charge over all or any part of the property of the company (both present and future) including its uncalled capital for the time being, and debentures, Debenture-stock, bonds and other securities may be made assignable free from any equities between the company and the person to whom the same may be issued.
- Issue of Debentures at Discount etc. 81. The Company may issue any debentures, bonds or other securities except shares at a discount, premium or otherwise, and with any special privileges as to redemption, surrender, allotment of shares, appointment of Directors and otherwise, as it may think fit, provided that Debentures with a right to allotment of or conversion into shares other than debentures issued to any institution specially by the Central Government in this behalf pursuant to the provision of the Act, shall be issued only by a special resolution of the Company in General Meeting.

| 82. Any debentures, debenture-stock or other securities except shares may be issued at a discount, premium or otherwise and may be issued on condition that they shall be convertible into shares of any denomination, and with any privileges and conditions as to redemption, surrender, drawing, allotment of shares and attending (but not voting) at General Meetings, appointment of Directors and otherwise. Debentures with the right to conversion into or allotment of shares shall be issued only with the consent of the Company in General Meeting accorded by a Special Resolution. | Terms of issue of debentures |
| 83. If any uncalled capital of the company is included in or charged by any mortgage or other security, the Board may, subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles make calls on the members in respect of such uncalled capital in trust for the person in whose favour such mortgage or security is executed. | Mortgage of uncalled capital |
| 84. If the Board or any of them or any other persons shall become personally liable for the payment of any sum primarily due from the Company, the Board may execute or cause to be executed any mortgage, charge or security over or affecting the whole or any part of the assets of the Company by way of indemnity to save the Directors or persons so becoming liable as aforesaid from any loss in respect of such liability. | Indemnity may be given |
| 85. Where any uncalled capital of the Company is charged, all persons taking any subsequent charge there on shall not be entitled by notice to the shareholders or otherwise, to obtain priority over prior charge. | Priority over charge on uncalled capital |

RESERVE AND DEPRECIATION FUNDS

| 86. The Board, may from time to time, before recommending any dividend, set apart by way of reserves such portion of the profits of the Company as they think fit as a Reserve Fund to meet contingencies or for the liquidation of any debentures, debts or other liabilities of the Company, for equalisation of dividend or for repairing, improving and such other purpose of the Company as the Board in their absolute discretion think conducive to the interest of the Company and may invest the several sums so set aside or so much thereof as required to be invested upon such investments other than shares of the Company as they may think fit and from time to time vary such investments and dispose of all or any part thereof for the benefit of the Company and may divide, the Reserve fund into such special funds as they think fit with full power to transfer the whole or any portion of a Reserve fund to another Reserve fund and also with full power to employ the Reserve fund or any part thereof in the business of the Company separate from other assets and without being bound to pay interest on the same. | Reserve Fund |
| 87. The Board may, from time to time before recommending any dividend, set apart any such portion of the profits of the Company, as they think fit, as a depreciation fund applicable at the discretion of the directors, for providing against any depreciation in the investments of the Company or for rebuilding, restoring, replacing or for altering any part of the building, work, plant, machinery or other property of the Company, earthquake, accident, riot wear and tear or any other means whatsoever and for repairing altering and keeping in good condition the property of the Company or for extending and enlarging the building, machinery and property of the Company with full power to employ the assets constituting such depreciation fund in the business of the Company and that without being bound to keep the same separate from the other assets. | Depreciation Funds |
| 88. All moneys carried to any reserve fund and depreciation fund respectively shall nevertheless remain and be profits of the Company applicable subject to due provisions being made for actual loss or depreciation, for the payment of dividend and such moneys and all other moneys of the Company may be invested by the Directors in or upon such investments or securities and they may select or may be used as working capital or may be kept at any bank on deposit or otherwise as the directors may from time to time think proper. | Investment of moneys |

MEETINGS

|---|-------------------------------|
| 89. In addition to any other meeting, Company shall hold a General Meeting as its Annual General Meeting at the intervals specified in Section 96 (1) of the Act. Subject to the provisions of Section 96 (2) of the Act, such Annual General Meeting shall be held at such time and place as may be determined by the Board. | Annual General Meeting |
|---|-------------------------------|

Right to attend General Meeting	90. Every member of the Company shall be entitled to attend every general meeting either in person or by proxy, and the Auditor of the Company shall have the right to attend and to be heard at any general meeting on any part of the business which concerns him as Auditor.
Reports, Statements and Registers to be laid on the table	91. At every Annual General Meeting of the Company there shall be laid on the table the Directors' Report and audited financial statements, Auditors Report (If not already incorporated in the audited financial statements), the proxies lodged and the Register of Director's holdings maintained under Section 170 of the Act. The Auditors Report shall be read before the Company in General Meeting and shall be open to inspection by any Member of the Company.
Power of Board to call Extraordinary General Meeting	92. The Board of Directors may, whenever they think fit, call in Extraordinary General Meeting.
Extraordinary General Meeting on requisition of members	93. The Board shall on the valid requisition of such number of members as specified in sub section (2) of section 100 of the Act, forthwith proceed to call an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Company and the provisions of Section 100 of the Act, shall apply to any such requisition or to any meeting called pursuant thereto.
Notice of meeting	94. Except as provided In Section 101 (1) of the Act, a General Meeting, Annual General Meeting or Extra Ordinary General Meeting may be called by giving not less than twenty-one days' notice to every member, to any person entitled to a share in consequence of the death or insolvency of a member, and to the auditor(s) and every Director for the time being of the Company. The accidental omission or the non-receipt of any notice by any member or other person entitled to receive the same shall not invalidate the proceeding of the meeting.
Contents of Notices	95. Every notice of a General Meeting shall specify the place, date, day and time of the meeting and shall contain a statement of the business to be transacted thereat. Where any business to be transacted at the meeting consists of "Special Business" as hereinafter defined, there shall be annexed to the notice of the meeting an explanatory statement setting out all material facts concerning such items of business as provided in Section 102 of the Act.
Special Business	96. All business shall be deemed Special that is transacted at an Extraordinary General Meeting and also all business that is transacted at an Annual General Meeting with the exception of the consideration of the financial statements and the Reports of the Board of Directors and the Auditors thereon, declaration of dividend, appointment of Directors in place of those retiring and the appointment of Auditors and fixing of their the remuneration.
PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETING
Ordinary Business	97. The business of an Annual General Meeting shall be to receive and consider the financial statements and the Reports of the Directors and of the Auditors; the declaration of any dividends and the appointment of Directors in place of those retiring; the appointment and fixing of remuneration of the auditors and to transact any other business which, under these presents, ought to be transacted at an Annual General Meeting.
Quorum	98. Thirty (30) members present in person and entitled to vote shall be a quorum for all purposes at any General Meeting pursuant to the provisions of section 103 of the Act. No Business shall be transacted at any General Meeting unless the requisite Quorum shall be present at the commencement of the business.
Chairman of General Meeting	99. (1) The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall be entitled to take the chair at every General Meeting, whether annual or extraordinary. If there be no such Chairman, or if at any meeting, he is not present within fifteen (15) minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting, or is unwilling to act as Chairman, the Directors present shall elect one of their Member to be Chairman and if no Director is present or if all the Directors present decline to take the chair, then the Members present shall elect one of themselves to be the Chairman on a show of hands.

- (2) If a poll is demanded on the election of the Chairman, it shall be taken forthwith, the Chairman elected on a show of hands exercising all the powers of the Chairman under the provisions of the Act. If some other person is elected Chairman as a result of the poll, he shall be Chairman for the rest of the meeting.
100. No business shall be discussed at any General Meeting except the election of a Chairman, whilst the Chair is vacant. Procedure when chair is vacant
101. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of member shall stand dissolved, but in any other case, it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week, at the same time and place or to such other day, time and place as the Board may determine. If at such adjourned meeting a quorum is not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting, those members present shall constitute a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called. Meeting to be adjourned
102. At any General Meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall unless a poll is demanded under Section 109 of the Act, be decided on show of hands. In the case of an equality of votes, the Chairman shall both on a show of hands and at the poll have a casting vote in addition to the vote or votes to which he may be entitled as a member. Voting by show of hands in first instance and motion how decided in case of Equality of votes.
103. A declaration by the Chairman that on a show of hands a resolution has or has not been carried either unanimously or by a particular majority, and an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the Company shall be conclusive evidence of the fact, without proof of the number or proportion the votes cast in favour of or against such resolution. What would be evidence of the passing of a resolution where poll not demanded
104. Before or on the declaration of the result of voting on any Resolution on a show of hands, a poll may be ordered to be taken by the Chairman of the meeting of his own motion or shall be ordered to be taken by him on demand made in that behalf by any member or members present in person or by proxy and holding shares in the company which confer a power to vote on the resolution not being less than one-tenth of the total voting power in respect of the Resolution, or holding shares on which an aggregate sum of not less than five lacs rupees or such higher amount has been paid up. Demand of poll
105. (1) If a poll is demanded on a question of adjournment or election of Chairman, the poll shall be taken forthwith. A poll demand on any other question shall be taken at such time not being later than 48 hours from the time when the demand was made, and in such a manner and at such place as the Chairman of the meeting may direct. Poll
- (2) The demand of the poll shall not prevent the continuance of a meeting or the transaction of any business other than the question on which a poll has been demanded.
- (3) Where a poll is to be taken, the Chairman of the meeting shall appoint two scrutinizers, at least one of whom shall be a member (not being an officer or an employee of the Company) present at the meeting, provided that such a member is willing to scrutinise the vote.
- (4) The Chairman shall have power at any time before the result of the poll is declared to remove a scrutinisher from office and fill vacancy in the office of scrutinisher arising from such removal or from any other cause.
106. On a Poll taken at a meeting of the Company, a member entitled to more than one vote, or his proxy or other person entitled to vote for him as the case may be, need not if he votes, use all his votes or cast in the same way all the votes he uses. Rights of Members to use his votes differently
107. (1) The Chairman, with the consent of the Members, may adjourn any meeting from time to time and from place to place within the city, town or village in which the Registered Office of the Company is situated, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. Power to adjourn General Meeting
- (2) Save as provided in Section 103 of the Act, it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjournment or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
